What's Included

Platform Access

- Unlimited platform access for all licensed users
- Multi-format exports: PDF, Word, PowerPoint, Excel
- Proprietary datasets and Mordor Intelligence knowledge base surfaced contextually
- Collaboration features including project workspaces and internal file sharing
- Enterprise portal provisioning available for isolated environments
- Organization admins manage user access, roles, and permissions

How We Work

- Dedicated Account Manager overseeing your engagement
- Domain expert access for consulting hours and Expert Review
- Periodic reviews to assess usage and align priorities
- In-app support via Intercom built directly into the platform

Access & Setup

myRA is a self-service, browser-based platform. No IT involvement is required unless enterprise network policies require domain whitelisting. A configuration guide is provided if needed. All feature updates are pushed directly to the platform with no manual action required.

Security & Data Governance

- Zero data retention on LLM providers. Prompts and outputs are not stored or used for training.
- Encryption in transit (TLS 1.2+), role-based access control managed by organization admins
- Aligned with GDPR and global privacy frameworks
- Full Security & Compliance Overview available on request

Commercial Terms

Billing:	Annual, invoiced upfront
Licensing:	Named-user basis
Provisioning:	Within 2-3 business days of confirmation
Valid Until:	14 Jan 2026

Payment modes and terms can be discussed with your Account Manager.

Expert Review & Consulting

Expert Review is integrated into the platform workflow. Send claims, files, or full conversations for review by domain specialists. Turnaround is 24-48 hours; async communication with assigned experts is available in-platform. Consulting hours apply flexibly across strategy, product, procurement, or corporate development for benchmarking, methodology, scenario analysis, or primary research support. Hour consumption is communicated before work commences.

Next Steps

Upon confirmation, we provision your environment and schedule onboarding. A Master Services Agreement will be shared for execution. Contact your Account Manager to proceed.

Important Notice: This quotation is for planning purposes and does not constitute a binding agreement. Final terms are subject to the executed Master Services Agreement. Pricing valid for the period stated; extensions require written confirmation. Expert Review turnaround times are service targets.
